

PRIVACY POLICY

London Catalyst will collect and use any personal data that you share with us transparently, honestly and fairly. We have appropriate security measures in place to protect the personal data that you share. We will not sell your data or use third party agencies to contact you. We use the information to help us run the charity effectively and, specifically, to:

- Process applications for and payments of grants
- Notify you of changes to our organisation
- Send communications which you have requested and that may be of interest to you
- Conduct research into the impact of our grant-making
- To assist the processing of a job application.

We will disclose your personal information where required to do so by law or if we believe that such action is necessary to comply with the law or to protect the security or integrity of the charity.

Your consent to this Privacy Policy followed by your submission of an application for a grant represents your agreement.

We endeavour to ensure that there are appropriate and proportionate measures to prevent the loss, misuse, alteration, unauthorised disclosure or access to your personal information.

DONORS

Where we rely on your consent to use your personal information, for example if you are an individual donor to the annual appeal, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time.

We will write to you individually to request consent. We will also acknowledge your right to be informed, your right of access and your right of erasure, to stop us using your personal information for direct marketing purposes or to be unsubscribed from our email list.

We are legally required to hold some types of information to fulfil our statutory obligations (for example the collection of Gift Aid). You can check the personal data we hold about you, and ask us to update it where necessary, and ask us to remove your personal information at any time by emailing london.catalyst@peabody.org.uk
